PO Box 287 * Milton, WA 98354 * 253.891.1397

Newsletter - April 2014

Welcome to the Responsible Contractors newsletter, a forum for us to highlight company news, feature some of our most highly regarded contractors, and include customer testimonials.

We appreciate everyone's continued support for ResponsibleContractors.com. Please continue to share our unique service with your family and friends, where consumers do not pay a fee and we do not collect their personal information to search our site and find qualified contractors.

Company News

Keep spreading the word! We are excited about how we are growing. We are averaging over a 1000 visits a day to our site.

If you are still looking to get ideas and meet potential contractors for your Spring and Summer projects, there is still one more show to come.

- OMB Home & Garden Show, St. Martin's University-Marcus Pavilion Lacey WA, April 12 -13
- We are happy to support all Home, Garden and Remodeling Shows. Please let us know about your event.

Employment Opportunities! We are hearing from our contractors that their businesses are growing and they are in need of skilled trades people. In order to connect contractors with skilled workers, we want to add an Employment Section to our site. If you have a position to fill or a skill to offer, please let us know.

Refinishing a Front Door: So your front door is weathered?

We all know the signs. The wood begins to warp, the paint begins to crack, the hinges rust, the corners may even dent. Over time, weather and usage take a grueling toll on your front door. Often times, the desire is simply to replace the door with something that is mass-produced, contains metal and fiberglass, or is low maintenance. Sometimes, however, a truly timeless door should be salvaged. This can be done by refinishing a wooden door. Complete article at: <http://responsiblecontractors.wordpress.com/>
