Home Improvement Tips

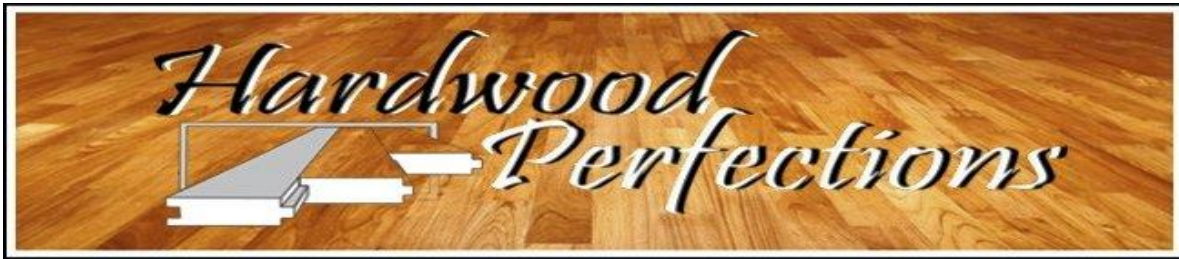

Guardians of the Home: Front Doors!

The entrance to your home is more than a door. It brings aesthetic appeal, creates first impressions, guards against weather, and for some homes is a first line of defense against intruders. But with the weather changing and the season for working outdoors coming to an end, is your door ready to face the challenges of the cold seasons?

For tips on weatherizing and securing your front door, Read complete article here.

This Month's Featured Contractors

Hardwood Perfections - "Because Your Floor deserves perfection". That's their promise of delivering superior craftsmanship, when it comes to your wood floor. For most of us our home represents our largest and most precious investment. When it comes to floors, we want them done right the first time! Hardwood Perfections prides themselves in being the only flooring company you'll ever need to contact to get the affordable high quality job your floors deserve. Our every job is done with a goal to achieve customer satisfaction.

Incredibly hard working company. Very fast and great work. Gave us a written quote and did exactly what they said. Very knowledgeable - did little things I wouldn't have thought of. I have already recommended them to friends. ~ Camano WA

Big Fish Construction has 35 years of experience in all phases of commercial and residential construction and custom remodeling from foundations, framing, to finish carpentry, even small repairs. We work with an experienced team of subcontractors to meet all of your project needs. They also specialize in projects that give homeowners the ability to live in their own home safely, independently, and comfortably as they age: ADA compliant ramps, wheelchair accessible bathrooms, and other modifications.

I have used Big Fish Construction multiple times. I am very happy with their work. They have a wholistic approach, are very conscientious and do what they say they will. The finished projects reflect their many years of experience and expertise. ~ Tacoma, WA

Valley Furnace has been family owned for over 35 years. They pledge to their customers the highest level of quality, integrity, honesty and fairness at a reasonable price. They establish lasting relationships by exceeding expectations & gaining trust through exceptional performance. Valley Furnace offers a wide variety of services including installation, service repairs, parts & routine maintenance for all your heating and cooling needs.

I am beyond pleased with my decision to use the services of Valley Furnace. They were extremely helpful and thoughtful and professional. They arrived on schedule with drop cloths, and were so careful when they removed the old furnace and installed the new one. It's totally amazing, the quiet of my new furnace compared to the old one, and really it's a nice even warm clean heat now. I am thrilled with my purchase and with Valley Furnace. ~ Puyallup WA
